SENATE.

MONDAY, MARCH 4TH—47TH DAY.

The Senate was called to order by Lieut.-Governor R. A. Doughton promptly at 10 o'clock a. m.

Prayer by Rev. J. L. Foster of the Christian church of this city.

The journal so far as it related to action on the election law was read at request of the Democratic Senators, the further reading being dispensed with.

THE MORNING HOUR

was taken up in routine work, presentation of petitions, reports from committees and introduction of many bills and resolutions which took their place upon the calendar.

A bill to be entitled an act to facilitate the contest of seats in the General Assembly, reported favorably by Mr. Snipes for committee.

A MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

transmitting 42 bills and resolutions passed by that body asking concurrence by the Senate.

was taken up and the following business disposed of:

Resolution to pay $151.65, burial expenses of the late E. L. Franck, passed its several readings and transmitted to House of Representatives.

THE AGRICULTURAL DEPARTMENT

bill was taken up on its second reading.

Mr. Paddison, in charge of the bill, said this bill reorganizes the agricultural department, abolishes the board of trustees of the A. and M. College, and puts the college under the direction of the agricultural department. It is a bill which simply says that the party in power shall take charge of the agricultural department. It make the president of the State Farmer's Alliance a member of the board of agriculture.

Mr. Adams raised a legal question that the bill made a morals of this Senate a member of the board of agriculture. This makes him ineligible to either one or the other of these offices.

The bill passed its second reading. Objection was made to the bill going to its third reading by Mr. Adams.

Mr. Paddison moved to suspend the rules and put the bill on its third reading. The rules were suspended and the bill passed its third reading.

Mr. Chandler moved a suspension of the rules and put the upon its passage; the motion prevailed and the bill was read together with a substitute by the committee on military affairs, which reduced the appropriations to each company from $250 to $150; also reduces the salary of Adjutant General from $600 to $300.

Mr. McCaskey opposed this bill saying that the Constitution demands that we shall maintain a State militia force, and that if this bill passes it will be actually a dissolution of our present State guard.

He said if this bill passes the State guard will be disbanded virtually, and the State will be forced to resort to the old militia system which will result in a very expensive undertaking, and not return the satisfaction we now have in our State guard. He opposed any appropriation for a State encampment, but when it proposed a cutting of the already small appropriation for the support of the State guard organization, he opposed the bill and would vote against it.

The substitute was adopted on its second reading and on its third reading the ayes and noes were demanded by Mr. Parsons. The substitute passed its third reading—ayes 33, noes 9—and was sent to the House of Representatives.

Ayes—Messrs. Bellamy, Black, Brown, Candler, Carver, Dalby, Dula, Farthing, Fortune, Hamrick, Herbert, Hoover, Hurley, Lindsay, Marshall, Mewborne, Moody of Haywood, Moody of Stanly, Norris, Paddison, Parsons, Sanders, Sharp, Shaw, Snipes, Starbuck, Stephens, Taylor, Wall, Westmoreland, White of Alamance, White of Alexander, White of Perquimans, Wicker.—33.

Noes—Messrs. Adams, Ammons, Dowd, Forbes, Fowler, Green, Mitchell, Rice, Sigmon.—9.

Bill to create the office of lumber inspector and provide for the election thereof.

Mr. Forbes, in charge of the bill, explained the bill and spoke of the necessity of it. It provided for compelling lumber manufactures to bring their machinery into this State and stop shipping the round logs over into Virginia to be manufactured. The North Carolina land owner sells his lumber on the stump, and these large lumber manufacturers cut the logs and raft them out of the State to be manufactured into lumber.

Mr. Caskey was interested in the bill and hoped it would pass.

Mr. Sigmon favored the bill, though it a valuable one, a good one and it ought to be passed. He had opposed the bill, but since he had examined into it he found it was just what is needed to correct an evil that now robbed our people of many a dollar by shipping the round logs out of the State to be manufactured.

A number of amendments, excluding certain counties from the provisions of the bill were offered.

Mr. Candler moved to table the bill; lost.

An amendment, that bill shall not go into effect until January 1st, 1896; lost.

An amendment providing that pay of inspector shall not exceed $2,000 per annum; adopted.

An amendment that this law shall not go into effect until July 1st, 1895; adopted.

The bill, as amended, passed its third reading, and went to House of Representatives for concurrence.

Bill to authorize commissioners of Transylvania county to levy a special tax to build a bridge, passed second reading, ayes 31, noes 0, and went to third reading calendar.

THE INSURANCE BILL

came up as the special order at 12 o'clock, when Mr. Fortune, in charge of the bill, submitted a substitute taking in marine and life insurance companies. This bill provides for an insurance commissioner at a salary of $1,800 and clerk at $1,000, and the establishment of an insurance department.

Mr. Fortune led in support of this measure. He thought the time had come when the matter of insurance should be taken hold of by the State as a means of protection to the people. The bill did not propose to interfere with insurance companies, but was intended to regulate the business of insurance in the State, and to guarantee to the people nothing but solvent companies and relieve the people from the unjust discriminations of the southeastern tariff association. In answer to a question by Mr. Forbes (are you not a candidate for the office of insurance commissioner?) Mr. Fortune replied that he was glad to answer, since the introduction of this bill by himself his name had been mentioned for the place. Personally he had not announced himself or electioneered for it. If the bill passed and became a law he would not say what he might do. He added that he thought the office should be filled by some good Populist or Republican, and he thought there would be no trouble in finding plenty of good material in either of these parties.

Mr. Hoover, as chairman of the insurance committee, said he was compelled to make a statement. The pending bill was composed of the Fortune bill and a bill introduced by himself in the shape of a substitute, which had been well discussed in committee after having the argument of counsel representing the insurance companies doing business in the State, who are divided in their support and opposition to the provision of this bill. Many by force of circumstances are compelled to join the South Eastern Tariff Association who prefer doing buisness otherwise.

Mr. Moody, of Haywood, thought the commission a necessity, but he thought that section 9 of the bill had very objectionable features, and hardly knew what to do. He read the section and spoke to its effect. The section was too sweeping and failed to take into consideration that it was necessary to classify property for insurance, and this is all that the Tariff Association has done. He feared operation under this section would prove dangerous.

Mr. Fowler was mainly opposed to the creation of the office of Insurance Commissioner. The administration of our insurance laws was well done now at a cost of only about $1,800 per annum. This new department will no doubt increase the expenses at least to $2,800 and possibly to $4,000 or $5,000. He did not see any necessity for this new office save from a political standpoint. He named 28 States that have no such officer and said but 19 States in the United States do have this office. He hoped the bill will not pass.

Mr. McCaskey had a high regard for the champions of this bill, but he thought the matter an experiment and one he did not wish to support, as this was not a time to try experiments. We have an abundance of matters to correct now which have proved poor experiments. He feared this bill will prove a measure of crippling the insurance business in this State in the interests of the people. The more insurance brought into the State the greater competition; the more money goes into the treasury.

The previous question was demanded and sustained, and the question recurred on the amendment to strike out section 9 of the bill.

Mr. Forbes moved to lay the amendment on the table which prevailed, and the amendment went to the table carrying the bill with it.

SPECIAL ORDER

being the bill to provide for collecting, arranging and displaying of women's work of North Carolina at the Cotton States exposition was taken up—appropriates $5,000—with a minority report unfavorable by Senator White, of Alexander, Mewborne and Hamrick.

Mr. Black moved to lay the bill on the table.

Mr. Rice demanded the reading of the bill which was ordered.

On the motion to table the ayes and noes were demanded and ordered, and the bill was tabled, ayes 34, noes 9.

SPECIAL ORDER NO. 2.

Bill to supplement the school fund by a succession duty on property received by device or descent of an amount of $1,000 and over.

Mr. Lindsay looked upon this bill as one to tax the dead. He was here to do all in his power to reduce taxation of the living and not by transferring the same to the dead. He thought this hill was not consistent with the Constitution or the equation of taxation.

Mr. Adams believed it a dangerous bill. It taxes the widows and orphans of North Carolina: and that before they recover their property which will again be taxed, thus inflicting a double tax on this class of our people. It might be a good law in New York where great fortunes are readily amassed, but here, where the people are proverbially poor, it will work a great hardship.

The bill on a division vote stood 17 ayes and 17 noes. The President cast his vote in the negative and the bill failed to pass its second reading.

SPECIAL ORDER NO. 3.

Bill to abolish the criminal court of New Hanover county was taken up on its third reading, and Mr. Rice sent up an amendment to strike out the amendment providing that the salary of judge shall be paid by counties embraced in the circuit; adopted.

Mr. Forbes sent up amendment to strike out Edgecombe county; lost.

Mr. Green, an amendment that the bill shall not apply to Halifax county; lost.

Mr. Hoover, an amendment to strike out Vance county; lost.

Mr. Fowler said he was sorry to see an effort on the part of this Senate to blot out every vestige of local self-government. Halifax, through her Senator and Representatives, had asked not to put Halifax in the bill, and you turn a deaf ear to their appeal and vote Halifax in the circuit, only to help create an office to put one man into office.

Lindsay, an amendment that judge of this court shall be at the disposal of the governor to hold other courts when not engaged in the new circuit; adopted.

Mr. Dowd, an amendment to strike out Mecklenburg and New Hanover counties; lost; ayes 10, noes 31.

Mr. Dowd made a strong appeal to allow Mecklenburg to continue her present criminal court and not be forced into this new criminal circuit.

The previous question was demanded and sustained.

The question recurred on an amendment to strike out Mecklenburg county; lost.

The bill then went to its third reading as amended, on a call of the roll passed; ayes 30, noes 11.

Ayes.—Messrs. Ammons, Black, Brown, Candler, Carver, Dalby, Dula, Fortune, Grant, Hamrick, Herbert, Hurley, Marshall, McCaskey, Mewborne, Moody, of Haywood, Moody, of Stanly, Norris, Paddison, Parsons, Rice, Sharp, Shaw, Sigmon, Starbuck, Stephens, Wall, Westmoreland, White, of Alamance, White, of Perquimans, Wicker—30.

Noes—Adams, Bellamy, Dowd, Forbes, Fowler, Green, Hoover, Lindsay Mitchell, Sanders, Taylor—11.

Bill for extending time for beginning work on the Greensboro, Norfolk and Midland railroad, passed its several readings and went to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

A resolution that no more local bills shall be introduced after the expiration of the morning hour Wednesday; adopted.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. Paddison arose to a question of personal privilege.

He said: On last Tuesday morning I was approached by ex-sheriff Jas. G. Kenan with reference to a bill he wished introduced and passed, giving him relief from the loss sustained by him as treasurer of Duplin county, by the failure of the Bank of New Hanover. I told him the question had been an issue in the campaign in Duplin, and had been decided against him, and that I should be compelled to oppose any such measure. He left me soon after, and later in the day my colleague told me that he had consented to introduce the bill "by request." I see by referring to the Senate journal of the 26th February, that a bill for the relief of ex-Sheriff Jas. G. Kenan was introduced by Senator Grant "by request" and placed upon the calendar. I was either out of the chamber when it was introduced, or else engaged, for I did not know that the bill had been introduced.

The same day I was appointed on the sub-committee to visit the University and the Greensboro schools, Upon being informed that I would be gone but one day, I consented to go. Instead of one day it was impossible for the committee to make the visit in less than two days, and I was utterly astonished to learn on my return Friday morning that such a bill had passed the Senate and had been sent to the House without engrossment, and that it would be considered before the committee on corporation that morning. In company with the representative from Duplin, I appeared before this committee and explained how it had passed the Senate in my absence, and entered my protest against its passage. To my surprise, I learned later that the committee had decided to report the bill favorably, and was informed by a member of the committee that a member of the House met a member of the committee, had voted with the committee to report the bill favorably, the vote standing five to five without his vote.

I am informed that the bill was taken up at the nights session of the House immediately upon its assembling, and before one-half of the members had taken their seats it was put through its several readings, and immediately thereafter was taken to the office of the enrolling clerk, enrolled at once, and brought into the Senate chamber and the approval of the committee on enrolled bills obtained, but for some reason the Speaker refused to sign it, and the bill was finally reconsidered in the House, and referred to the committee on propositions and grievances.

I read as part of my remarks an extract from a letter from Duplin county:

"I see that a bill to relieve Jas. G. Kenan, ex-sheriff, has passed your body. I would like to say that your and Senator Grant's election was directly attributed to this bank trouble; and it is not asking too much of you to obtain the nature of that bill, and have it stopped in the house until they can get the facts. * * Your 411 majority elected you and Grant, and I think those that elected you should be consulted."

Mr. President, it would be an outrage on the people of Duplin county to pass this bill, and if in order I move to recall the bill from the House.

The motion could not be entertained because the bill was out of the reach of the Senate.

The Senate took a recess to 8 o'clock p. m.

Evening Session.

The senate was called to order at 8 o'clock by the president.

THE CALENDAR

was taken up and the following business transacted:

Bill to incorporate the Bank of Tarboro, passed several readings; bill for the relief of James W. Humphreys, an ex-Confederate soldier, places his name on the pension roll; bill to repeal charter of Kill Quick, Edgecombe county; bill to incorporate United Baptist Institute, Alexander county; bill to invalidate an election held in Mitchell county on railroad bonds; bill to change the county line between Macon and Graham counties; bill to establish the line between Tennessee and North Carolina; bill to appoint cotton weighers for Wake county; bill to amend charter of Goldsboro passed third readings.

SPECIAL ORDER

being a bill to protect the oyster industry was taken up at 8:15 as a special order. The bill requires oyster dredgers to register and receive a license therefor; all licensed dredgers to be a resident of this State for at least twelve months. These licenses only apply to natural oyster beds, and prevents dredging between 1st February and 1st of May each year. The bill applies to Hyde, Dare, Carteret and Pamlico counties bordering on Pamlico sound.

The bill passed its second reading.

Mr. Mewborne did not like the bill because he was opposed to dredging the oyster beds at all. It was the ruin to a poor man who made his living by oyster fishing not one of whom was able to buy a dredge boat.

Mr. Carver had not intended to interfere in any matter not effecting his own immediate district unless it was public legislation, but he was informed that this was a measure against the interest of the poor and laboring man, and would vote against the bill.

Mr. Parsons, in charge of the bill, thought that opponent's of the bill did not understand it. The act of 1891 had almost paralyized the oyster industry of his section, and he only endeavored to rectify the damage then done. The business is now at a standstill and there is no market for oysters. This bill will not hurt the small oyster fishermen. Before the 1891 law there were canning industries in Eastern Carolina with a capacity of about 16,000 bushels a day, now that has almost entirely ceased.

The bill on its third reading Mr. Mewborne demanded the call of the roll and the bill fail to pass; ayes 15, noes 20.

ANOTHER PERSONAL PRIVILEGE MATTER.

Mr. Williams, Republican, of Craven, arose to a point of order on a communication in the Asheville Citizen of March 2nd, 1895, which read as follows:

"We assume that the Asheville Register is still the seeker after truth that it has ever been and that it will be glad to learn that Representative Williams, on the Charlotte Observer's Wilmington Messenger list of voters for the Douglass adjournment, is not dead, though it may be he sleepeth, as verily the Register editor does too. The Williams on the list is a Republican in good and regular standing, R. P., by name, from Craven county. This Williams, to further identify him to the esteemed but ignorant Register, ran as a Democrat for mayor of New Berne several years ago but he was defeated, and thereupon became a Republican—for office only."

He pronounced the author of the article a liar; he had never been a Democratic candidate for mayor of Newbern. He was not in Raleigh when the Fred Douglass resolution came up, and he would file a check of $100, with the Secretary of State to make good his promise to prove the fellow a liar.

Mr. Lusk added that the author of the article was a Yankee from the State of Michigan.

DE CASTELLANE GOULD.

Miss Anna, Daughter of Jay Gould, Becomes Countess De Castellane. A Magnificent Wedding in the Home of the Bride's Brother.

NEW YORK, March 4.—The marriage of Miss Anna Gould, daughter of Jay Gould, of this city, to Count Paul Ernst Boniface de Castellane, was solemnized today at noon. Archbishop Corrigan officiated, at the residence of her brother, Mr. George J. Gould, 67th street and Fifth avenue.

The residence was artistically decorated throughout with a profusion of tropical plants, smilax, asparagus pulmosa, maidenhair fern over 20,000 la France roses, lilies of the valley and Japan lilies.

The wedding took place on the first or parlor floor, the ceremony being performed in what is know as the West India room.

First came the ushers, Prince Del Drago, Raoul-Duval, Brockholst Cutting and Howard Gould. They were followed by the bridesmaids, Misses Beatrice Richardson, Adelaide Montgomery, Catherine Cameron and Helen Gould. The bride then followed, leaning on the arm of her brother, Mr. George J. Gould, her train being carried by her nephews, Masters Kingdon and Jay Gould.

The ceremony was abridged by the fact that the bride has not, as it has been frequently stated, surrendered her own religious faith.

The "Ave Maria" was sung by Rosa Lucher, stationed at the foot of the stairs in the large hall. Her rich voice blending with the strains of the organ and the musical cadences of the orchestra added a rare charm to an impressive and beautiful ceremony.

The flowering plants which had served as posts for the ribbons forming the aisle were removed, and in a short time after the doors of the dining room were thrown wide open and a number of small tables were brought into the room and placed about it, where the guests seated themselves to enjoy a delicious breakfast.

In addition to the immediate relatives of the bride there were present at the ceremony and breakfast about 80 intimate friends.

The bride's wedding gown was a heavy ivory satin Duchesse, tastily trimmed with point de Angeleterre lace, which was twelve inches wide and of rare and beautiful pattern. The skirt fits very tightly over the hips and flares out at the bottom. The bridal veil was rare old lace, presented to the bride by the Marquise De Castellane, and was fastened at the crown of the head with a bunch of orange blossoms. The veil did not fall over the face but simply down the back in close folds and was fastened at the trail by orange blossoms.

The presents were displayed on the library table on a cover cloth of heavy red velvet. Among the rarest and most costly was a heart-shaped brooch. In the center was the rare and world famous Esterhazy diamond surrounded by eleven diamonds, each of which is large enough to be worn as a single stone. This was the gift of Miss Helen Gould.

Mr. and Mrs. George J. Gould's present was a collar of superb pearls, consisting of ten strands, each pearl being the size of a good sized pea. The strands were crossed by bars of platinum, holding tows of brilliant white diamonds, these dividing the pearls into ten compartments. In the entire collar there was seventy-two diamonds and 800 pearls.

Mr. Frank Gould presented a chain of two hundred diamonds, which could be worn in coils about the neck or entwined as a bracelet about the wrist.

Mr. Howard Gould gave a large knot or cluster of diamonds, each end of the glittering ribbon having as a tassel a superb blue and pink diamond.

The Marquis and Marquise de Castellane presented a superb and unique necklace consisting of five ropes of pearl, each string of which has historic interest, one having belonged to Henri Quatre and another to Marie Antoinette. At one end of the necklace securing the five strands was a magnificent square emerald of exceeding beauty, surrounded by twenty four diamonds. This is an heirloom in the De Castellane family and could only pass to the eldest one.

Another present by the Marquis De Castellane was a ring of two stones, a superb ruby and sapphire.

Count Jean De Castellane's present was a diamond hat pin of exceeding beauty of design.

Raid on a Distillery.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., March 4.—Collector Essary, of the second Tennessee district, has received a report of the quickest raid on an illicit distillery ever made in this State. On the 28th he was informed of the location of a "moonshine" still in Cocke county. He telephoned W. F. Park, deputy collector at Danbridge, who went to the place and destroyed the outfit. The still was a new one with a capacity of seveuty-five gallons. Its ovens had never made a run. While Deputy Park was returning home he was thrown from his buggy and seriously, though not fatally injured

The New Silver Party.

GRAND FORKS, N. D., March 4.—The Populist party of North Dakota will be merged into the new silver party. W. H. Standish, attorney-general under the late Populist State administration, is authority for this declaration. He intimates that this course of action has been agreed on by the leaders in conference and declares that the rank and file of the party is in favor of the move.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, March 4.—At noon today the U. S. Senate closed its final session of the Fifty-third Congress amid crowded galleries, congratulatory resolutions, a parting word from President Cleveland and a brief valedictory from the Vice-President.

The Senators were at work after having remained in the chamber until 3 a.m. They clearly of the long sessions, lasting from Saturday noon, and their ranks were too thin up to 11 o'clock for the transaction of anything beyond formal business.

At 10:15 Mr. Voorhees offered a resolution which was adopted, for the appointment of a joint committee of the two houses, two senators and two members to wait upon the president of the United States and inform him that Congress having completed its business was ready to adjourn. The vice-president named Mr. Voorhees and Mr. Sherman as the Senate members of the committee. The were expressed in a resolution offered by Mr. Henderson for the courtesy and impartiality with which Mr. Harris had served as pro tem of the Senate.

Mr. Harris then took the chair and returned his thanks for the flattering resolution.

At this moment Mr. Voorhees and Mr. Sherman, the Senate committee to wait on the President, appeared at the door. "The committee has waited on the President," said Mr. Voorhees, "and has notified him that the work of Congress was at an end. The President states that he has no further communication to make, and he tenders his congratulations to Congress on the CONCLUSION OF ITS LABORS."

The Vice-President, who had now taken the chair, rose as the clock pointed two minutes to twelve for a parting word to the Senate. He said:

"Senators, the hour has arrived, fixed by law for the termination of this Congress. In the magnitude of the questions determined and they have been discussed the Congress just closing has been surpassed by few that have preceded it. Since its organization two Senators have retired by resignation, two by expiration of the terms of their appointment; and four have been removed by the hand of death."

With the fall of the gavel the great debates and the important legislation of the 53rd Congress pass to the domain of history. It only remains to make official announcement that the Senate stands adjourned without day."

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, Mar. 4.—At noon today after a continuous session of 48 hours, interrupted by an occasional recess, the flags above the Capitol were lowered and the 53rd Congress had passed into history.

The concluding minutes were in the NATURE OF A LOVE FEAST.

The best feeling prevailed. The resolution of thanks to the Speaker, which usually came from a member of the majority, was offered today by Mr. Cannon, of Illinois, in a very graceful speech, bearing testimony to the high appreciation in which the presiding officer was held by the Republican minority. Mr. Wilson, of West Virginia, responded in behalf of the majority, and Mr. Simpson, of Kansas, representing the Populist, joined in the expressions of thanks for the courtesies and kindness extended by the Speaker. All the kindly sentiments were applauded, and when Mr. Crisp ascended the rostrum to return his thanks and deliver his parting words, the

DEMONSTRATION WAS TERRIFIC.

"Representatives," said he, "This is the largest Congress that ever assembled in the United States—consisting of 356 members, besides the delegates. These gentlemen are representative men. They represent all the shades of thought and opinion in all parts of the grandest country under the sun."

The present occupant of the chair—and he feels that in making this expression he but echoes the experience of every one of his prepecessors—had no

incident to the office of Speaker. That he has been enabled in any measure to discharge the duties of this office with satisfaction is most largely due to your kindness, to your consideration, to your constant help. We have been in session continuously, longer, perhaps, than any Congress in the history of the government. We have been surrounded by difficulties and trials, but I am sure I can say, not only for this body in the aggregate, but for each member of it, that however we may have failed, whatever our short comings may be, we have, according to our earnest convictions, endeavored to do that which was for the best interests of the whole American people. (Applause.)

To each and every member of the House as he is now about to return to his home I extend my heartfelt thanks and express the hope that he may be reunited with his family and his friends

IN PEACE AND HAPPINESS."

(Loud and general applause.)

The Speaker then announced the appointment of Messrs. Culberson, Democrat, of Texas, Hitt, Republican, of Illinois, and himself (under the resolution adopted last night) as members of the monetary commission. The appointments were hailed with more applause.

Then the end came. The hands of the clock pointed to 12.

"I now declare the third session of the Fifty-third Congress," said he "adjourned without day."

THE CAUCASIAN.

THE FIFTY-THIRD CONGRESS.

On yesterday, the Fifty-third Congress took its place in history. It may be useful to gather up some of the lessons it has taught.

It is certain, that no other Congress since the foundation of the Republic, ever came into being, encouraged by so much of high expectation, as invited this one to achievement. For a third of a century the gevernment had been in the hands of a party, whose theory and practice had centralized as much of power in the national administration as was possible. The same party had used the customs laws to build up and foster an insolent manufacturing caste, at the expense of the farmers and consumers of the country. They had loaded the country with an enormous debt to maintain the Union, which they converted into gold bearing obligations, by means that were secret and unfair. They had taken care to make this debt the basis of a banking system, which gave a few private corporations power to control the finances of the country. They had dishonored silver by robbing it of its functions as money. They had subsidized the transportation lines of the country, by paying them enormous bonuses. They had invited into being, and had encouraged the growth of all sorts of trusts and combinations against the freedom of trade. They had sought to perpetuate their tenure of power, by allying themselves with the rich and powerful, in every section of the union. The Fifty-third Congress was elected with a distinct understanding, that it would undo all the wrong that the Republican party had done; and restore to the people all the rights and privileges which had been taken away from them. At the same time that this Congress was called into being, a chief executive of the same party was chosen, in order that there might be no doubt, that demanded reforms should be secured- Truly, more was expected of the Fifty third Congress than has been expected of any other Congress in the history of the country.

For thirty years the Democrats had been in opposition. They were put into power and their old enemies were put into opposition. They had promised a tariff for revenue only. They had promised a repeal of the internal revenue. They had promised the restoration of silver. They had promised an end to the subsidy system. They had promised relief from the tyranny of the banks. They had promised economy in all our expenditures. They had promised a rapid reduction of the national debt. They had promised all these things and the people expected them.

These were the expectations of the people. How sadly they have been disappointed we know. We have a tariff that is still protective. We have one hundred and sixty-two millions more of debt than we had when this Congress came into being. The scale of extravagance in expenditure has been continued. Silver has been still further degraded. The national banking system is still here. The Internal revenue system has been weakened in no respect or particular. There have been no serious attempts made to better the condition of the suffering masses. There is, therefore, only one conclusion that any honest man can reach; and that is, that the Democratic party has been false to its promises; and is not worthy to be believed in anything it may promise hereafter. Its leaders have thoroughly discredited it before the country and the world; and no man may be so stupid as to put faith in anything it may hereafter say.

The fifty-third Congress was expected to redeem the Republic from misrule. It has done nothing else, but show that its leaders are false men, unworthy of being believed in the future.

We, by no means, mean to assert that all Democrats are false, and unworthy of belief. We are glad to know, that there are hundreds of thousands of the rank and file of that party, who feel their betrayal more keenly than any one else can feel it. But they have been betrayed, and they can never any more put trust in the men who have betrayed them. They can do no otherwise, than leave their party, as they would leave any other degraded and degrading political machine and seek their rights elsewhere.

The Fifty-third Congress ought to go into history as the first traitor Congress of the American Republic.

THE STATE PRINTING AGAIN.

The CAUCASIAN has been informed, that the gentlemen to whom the committee on printing of this legislature has awarded the contract are not the lowest bidders. It is charged that those gentlemen have secured the recommendation of the committee upon a calculation that is unfair and unjust- It is pretty loudly hinted that there is a job in the award.

Of course, the CAUCASIAN does not know that there is any basis of fact for any of these charges; but it does know that the charges are openly made. And it does know that this contract ought not to be awarded to any one, until the bids are thoroughly and fairly examined by disinterested printing experts, and the facts in the case clearly and fairly ascertained. The law requires this printing to be given to the lowest responsible bidder; and just that thing ought to be done.

The CAUCASIAN is no man's man upon this subject, apart from the man who really is the lowest responsible bidder. We have called attention to this matter more than once. We call attention to it again, and we now say, that THE CAUCASIAN will expose without mercy any unfairness that may be practiced in the awarding of this printing contract. The facts about it can be ascertained; and any of the parties to this affair who are unwilling to have them ascertained ought to be regarded with suspicion. We say this in justice to all parties, and we are sure we are right.

Of course, we make no charges against any one. We simply want to guard the State, and secure the contract to the man that is entitled to it.

FALSE.

We have received many letters asking us, if the legislature refused to adjourn in honor of Lee and Geo. Washington, and then did adjourn in honor of Fred Douglass.

We tell one and all of our correspondents, in this public way, that the statements sent out in the Democratic press are false; and they have been branded as false, by a resolution spread upon the journal of the House to be read by all future generations. The only semblance of truth in the whole affair is to be found in the passage of a resolution by the House relating to adjourment in respect to Douglass; a resolution, by the way, that was voted for by some Democrats as well as Populists and Republicans. But the statements sent out about refusing honors to Washington and Lee are false; and those who sent them out knew they were false, when they sent them out.

PEPPER SAUCE.

Mr. Cleveland invited Fred Douglass and his white wife to dinner at the White House. Mr. Cleveland, according to Democratic logic, is a miscegenationist. The Democratic party afterwards nominated Mr. Cleveland, and elected him President. Therefore, the Democratic party is a miscegenationist party—See!

Now that Congress has adjourned, Mr. Cleveland may open up a friendly correspondence with Queen Lil. He can't write messages for a while; and he must have a leak for his wisdom somewhere.

We ought to be a profoundly thankful people. We have escaped the cholera; and the Fifty-third Congress is no more.

Grover, with an occasional lift from Belmont and Morgan, will now proceed to run the thing his own way.

The last Democratic Congress died yestsrday. The country ought to be thankful.

STATE HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY.

Its Need of State Aid---Its Work Important ---Senator Mewborne's Bill.

At the last meeting of the State Horticultural Society, held at Raleigh, October, 25, 1894, a committee was appointed to memorialize the Governor and Legislature upon

THE WORK AND NEEDS OF THE STATE HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY.

This Society was founded in 1879 by a number of the most prominent citizens of North Carolina, who recognized the great natural advantages of our State for fruit and vegetable growing.

The objects of the Society, as stated at its first meeting, were to encourage the development of our vast but unappreciated horticultural resources by—

1. Disseminating trustworthy information among our people as to the best varieties to plant and the best methods for caring for orchards, vineyards and gardens.

2. To secure cheaper rates and better methods of transportation to Northern markets, where the bulk of our produce is sold.

3. To endeavor to secure settlers for our idle lands from among horticulturists of less favored States by furnishing reliable information in regard to our natural resources.

All these objects have been, in no inconsiderable degree, attained.

The State Horticultural Society has from the beginning suffered from a lack of funds necessary to carry on its legitimate work. Yet the present status of our horticulture is very different and very much in advance of what it was fifteen years ago. It is indisputable that much of this advancement has been brought about by the public and private teaching and influence of the State Horticultural Society.

The work of such a society is of a public nature and essentially for the public benefit. In States where horticulture is in an undeveloped condition, the work of such society is wholly public in its scope and benefit. The active membership of a horticultural society under such circumstances is necessarily small, because the interest and knowledge required to make horticulture success ful are wanting.

The result is, in the same degree that the Society is enabled to carry on its work, the opening of new and profitable lines of work to our own citizens; the attraction of new horticultural skill and capital to the State; the increased taxable value of lands; additional work for transportation companies; more labor for men, women and children, and the general refinement, always found in communities devoted to horticultural pursuits.

There is no State in the Union which has attained any prominence in commercial hosticulture which has not an active State horticultural society, supported in part by funds appropriated from the public treasury. The amount of funds yearly granted for this purpose varies in the different States from $500 in such horticulturally unpromising States as New Hampshire to $35.000 in California.

Ohio grants to its State Horticultural Society $1,000 a year. Illenois $4,000, Indiana $1,000, Missouri $2,000, Kansas $1,450, Nebraska $2,000, Oregan $3,500, New Jersey $600, Rhode Island $1,000, Maine $1,000, Wisconsin $1,500. In addition to these sums most States print free of cost the annual report of this horticultural society.

The North Carolina Horticultural Society has depended hitherto on private subscription and the receipts of its Fair to carry on its work. Owing partly to the general depression of the agricultural and horticultural interests, and partly to the succession of three poor fruit years, the Society has wholly failed in this income, which in the most favorable years was insufficient. It now has an empty treasury, with no available funds to publish its annual report for the year just closed, or for carrying on its ordinary work for the present year.

This Society has never received aid from the public treasury, except that the Board of Agricultural donated $500 in 1886. All that has been done by this Society has been at the cost of a few men who, from State pride and love of horticulture, have freely and without price contributed their time, knowledge and money.

North Carolina is too great a State, its horticultural resources are too vast, the interests of its citizens are too closely concerned, to longer suffer the progress of this work to be hindered by lack of funds, considering that the work is of immediate usefulness, and can repay to the State more than 100 per cent. per annum on the money so invested.

The horticultural Society asks the State to aid its work for the next two years as follows:

1. The printing at the public expense of the Society's annual report, including the report for 1894, now ready but unpublished for lack of funds.

2. The appropriation of $500 per annum for office expenses, postage and a small salary for the Secretary, upon whom devolves the work of editing its publications and carrying on its correspondents.

The names of the Committee for the Horticultural Society, are a guarantee that should the aid be granted, it will be judiciously and economically administered, so as to return to the State a manifold increase. The Committee are:

J. VAN LINDLEY,
President, Pomona, N. C.
GERALD MCCARTHY,
Secretary, Raleigh.
C. B. EDWARDS,
S. W. WHITING.

In accordance with the foregoing petition Senator Mewborne has introduced the following bill, granting $500 per annum for two years, to aid the work of the State Horticultural Society. This is a matter in which all sections of the State are interested and it is hoped that the bill will meet with no obstruction to its passage.

The New Signboard ON THE Road to Success

Human Existence

Is, after all, very like a picturesque country road, with slopes to climb and valleys to leisurely travel, with here green fields of plenty to enjoy, and there marsh lands of temptation and danger to avoid, and with crossroads and "four corners" every now and then to confuse and possibly to mislead the traveler. Some of us fall to climb the hills, some fall asleep in the valleys, and still others wander off and are lost in the marsh's morasses, but to the great majority of mankind the crossroads are the only really difficult points to be passed.

"What studies will I take?" asks the school child.

"What trade or profession will I follow?" says the youth.

"How can I best win success?" says the man. These are

The Crossroads

We all encounter, and these are the places where most of us go astray. Blessed is the man who chooses the proper path at these various junctions. "Luck" may have been his guide, and his less fortunate neighbors are prone to say so, but investigation and experience teach that the only reliable helps at these difficult points are—knowledge and work. Knowledge is a burden to no one. Like the air you breathe, your knowledge proves its existence—not by apparent weight and color, but by its effect. How often have you found the information you acquired by casual observation or study to be of great specific advantage in a crisis whose possibility you had not dreamed of when you acquired that knowledge.

Then, if knowledge is to be your guide in the

Pathway of Life

Is it not worth your while to secure the greatest, the best source of human knowledge extant, when that source is, by American enterprise, placed within your reach? In the Encyclopædia Britannica the child will find matter to interest his little mind, and give him food for thought along the line of his natural bent; the youth will find life stories and professional and mechanical information to enable him to wisely choose his life work, and the adult will have his mind broadened; his intellect quickened, and his information extended to such a degree by it that he will be enabled to take advantage of opportunities that he otherwise would not see. Warning to Expectant ... Mothers.

Many internal remedies are being skilfully and gibly advertised, professing to Shorten Labor, Lessen Pains of Childbirth, etc., and with wonderful inconsistency to regulate menstruation. Common sense should teach any woman that a preparation adapted for will not prepare the system for Childbirth; on the contrary, INTERNAL REMEDIES at this time may imperil her life. We earnestly say BEWARE of all such; they cannot, at this critical period, do any possible good, and their use may prove fatal. P. P. P.

PRICKLY ASH, POKE ROOT AND POTASSIUM

Makes Marvelous Cures in Blood Poison Rheumatism and Scrofula

P. P. P. purifies the blood, builds up the weak and debilitated, gives strength to weakened nerves, expels diseases, giving the patient health and happiness where sickness, gloomy feelings and lassitude first prevailed.

For primary, secondary and tertiary syphilis, for blood poisoning, mercurial poison, malarial, dyspepsia, and in all blood and skin diseases, like blotches, pimples, old chronic ulcers, tetter, scald head, boils, erysipelas, eczema—we may say, without fear of contradiction, that P. P. P. is the best blood purifier in the world, and makes positive, speedy and permanent cures in all cases.

Ladies whose systems are poisoned and whose blood is in an impure condition, due to menstrual irregularities, are peculiarly benefited by the wonderful tonic and blood cleansing properties of P. P. P.—Prickly Ash, Poke Root and Potassium.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., Aug. 14th, 1893.—I can speak in the highest terms of your medicine from my own personal knowledge. I was affected with heart disease, pleurisy and rheumatism for 35 years, was treated by the very best physicians and spent hundreds of dollars, tried every known remedy without finding relief. I have only taken one bottle of your P. P. P., and can cheerfully say it has done me more good than anything I have ever taken. I can recommend your medicine to all sufferers of the above diseases.

MRS. M. M. YEARY,
Springfield, Green County, Mo.

—Prickly Ash, Poke Root and Potassium, the greatest blood purifier on earth.

ABERDEEN, O., July 21, 1891.

MESSRS. LIPPMAN BROS., Savannah, Ga.: DEAR SIRS—I bought a bottle of your P. P. P. at Hot Springs, Ark., and it has done me more good than three months' treatment at the Hot Springs. Send three bottles C. O. D.

Respectfully yours,
JAS. M. NEWTON,
Aberdeen, Brown County, O.

Capt. J. D. Johnston.

To all whom it may concern: I hereby testify to the wonderful properties of P. P. P. for eruptions of the skin. I suffered for several years with an unsightly and disagreeable eruption on my face. I tried every known remedy but in vain, until P. P. P. was used, and am now entirely cured.

Skin Cancer Cured.

Testimony from the Mayor of Sequin, Tex.

SEQUIN, TEX., January 14, 1893.

MESSRS. LIPPMAN BROS., Savannah, Ga.: Gentlemen—I have tried your P. P. P. for a disease of the skin, usually known as skin cancer, of thirty years' standing, and found great relief; it purifies the blood and removes all irritation from the seat of the disease and prevents any spreading of the sores. I have taken five or six bottles and feel confident that another course will effect a cure. It has also relieved me from indigestion and stomach troubles. Yours truly,

CAPT. W. M. RUST,
Attorney at Law.

REYNOLDS IN REIDSVILLE.

Sunday School Talks by Prominent Workers, Meetings to be Held in Raleigh.

Cor. of The Caucasian.

REIDSVILLE, N. C., March 4.—This American Sunday-school apostle spoke here Sunday p. m. to a crowded audience in the Baptist church, and was followed by Mr. N. B. Broughton, of Raleigh.

The first spoke on "The Sunday School as it exists today; its importance to church and State. The last on the "Unreached Masses, how to reach them."

In the evening Mr. Reynolds addressed about one thousand people in the Methodist church, holding closely the attention on "Improvements I have seen in Sunday schools from California to Maine."

If these meetings here are taken as an earnest of the meetings set for these gentlemen in the towns and cities in North Carolina, their tour will be an ovation to them and the cause they so nobly represent. Similar meetings will be held in Raleigh on the 11th inst.

Mrs. Judge Thomas Settle Dead.

On Sunday last the above named lady passed away very unexpectedly. She was the widow of perhaps, the most distinguished man the State has produced in many years.

On Saturday night Mrs. Settle had engaged in a social game of cards until 11:30, and appeared to be in very good spirits. She retired with her daughter, Miss Flossie, at the usual hour. About five o'clock on Sunday morning her daughter was suddenly awakened by hearing her mother violently cough; she also seemed to be strangling. Miss Flossie summoned aid, but before she returned Mrs. Settle had passed away. She leaves six children, Hon. Thos Settle, Congressman from the Fifth District; Douglass Settle, who resides in the West, and three married and two single daughters.

Mr. W. H. Wilson, a country merchant of Swannanoa, Buncombe county, who, it was announced, was a former red-hot Democrat, but went over last election to the Populists, and took all his wealth with him, and spent it all trying to be elected sheriff of Buncombe county, was nominated for clerk. These statements touched a tender cord in the Fusion heart, and Wilson was elected with a whoop.—News & Observer.

Wilson never ran for sheriff in Buncombe county. That paper is just mistaken, that's all; for it cannot lie. M.

Almost Got Loose.

People With Horizontal Heads

Level-headed folks have long since learned that credit is a very expensive luxury. Stores don't grow big by accident. Our's is one of the largest in the State. If we had not given the people a fair equivolent for their money, our store would never have been so large. If buying and selling as we do, for the SPOT CASH, we could not offer you greater values in every department than the accommodating credit man, we would blush to quote you prices. We keep no books, and as a consequence have no book-keeper, no collector, no lawyer to pay, and yet our business is increasing every day. Our customers merit the compliment as well as ourselves, and any one has [illegible] through each department of our Horticultural Society, of the latest [illegible] but to be shown in [illegible] 1894, a complete [illegible] ment to be convinced styles, best quality and lowest prices.

Our specialties are:

Dress Goods, Silks, Trimmings, etc.

Laces, Edgings, Embroideries, etc.

Mermaid Silk Waist, in all colors and figures.

Domestics, White Goods, etc.

Men's and Boy's Furnishings and Clothing.

Men's, Ladies', Misses' and Children's Shoes, in all of the latest styles.

House Furnishings, Trunks, Crockery, Lamps, and in fact everything kept in a large Department Store.

The House then went into a committee of the whole on the REVENUE AND MACHINERY ACT.

Sections 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5 were adopted.

Mr. Monroe offered to amend subsection 1 of section 6 by adding "where property is under mortgage, only the value of the equity of redemption shall be assessed against the mortgagor; and the interests of the mortgagee or mortgagees shall be assessed against the holders of such mortgage or mortgages, provided that the holder of such mortgage so assessed shall not be required to list the debt secured by said mortgage as a solvent credit. The amendment was advocated by Messrs. Monroe and Crumpler, and opposed by Lusk and Hileman. The amendment was lost.

Mr. Leinbach moved to amend subsection 2, section 6, so as to allow each tax payer to deduct the amount of his indebtedness from the taxable value of his personal property. The amendment was discussed by Leinbach in favor and Smith, Lusk and Norment against it. The amendment was defeated. Mr. Howard moved to add to section 12: "Provided further that in all building and loan associations those who hold shares of stock shall be required to list the same for taxation." Mr. Howard spoke very earnestly in advocacy of his amendment. Mr. Nelson thought the machinery act provided for all that the gentleman from Edgecombe wanted.

Mr. McClammy offered a substitute for the amendment. "Provided that building and loan associations shall not be taxed but persons holding stock shares list the same and shall not be allowed an offset to any debt due by them."

Both the substitute and the amendment were voted down. Sections 12, 13, 14, 15 were adopted without amendment. Mr. Crumel moved to amend section 16, sub-division 5 by striking out in line 30 all after the word "value" to and including the word "debtor." The words to be striken out are: "The party may deduct from the amount of his credits owing to him the amount of [illegible] able debts owing by him as principal debtor." This motion, after much discussion, was lost by a vote of 31 to 44.

Mr. Hileman moved to add to section 16, paragraph 5, line 24. "All foreign Building and Loan associations doing business in this State shall by their secretaries or treasurers' list for taxation its stock held by citizens of this State in the county, city or town where the owners of said stock reside. That in listing said stock for taxation the withdrawal value as fixed by the by-laws of each company shall be furnished the list-taker and the stock shall be valued for taxation as other moneyed investments of citizens of this State. That any association or officer of said association doing business in this State, who shall refuse to so list shares of stock owned by citizens of this State for taxation, shall be barred from doing business in the State and any local officer or person who shall collect dues assessments, premiums, fines or interest from any citizens of this State for any such association, which has failed or refused to list for taxation the stock held by citizens of this State shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and subject to a fine or imprisonment, or both at the discretion of the court. That all of said taxes shall be paid by the association listing said stock." The motion prevailed.

Section 30 was amended by Bryan of Chatham so that line 1 shall read, "The board of county commissioners shall cause the register of deeds to make out two copies of tax lists for each township, as revised by him according to a form to be adopted."

An amusing political discussion sprang up on amendment by Bryan of Chatham to strike out the word commissioners and insert the words "sheriff or tax collector."

Mr. Johnson of Sampson moved to amend by adding that the sheriff or tax collector shall let out the county printing to the lowest bidder. The section as amended passed.

Section 51 was amended by Mr. Winborne so as to provide that no land should be sold for taxes unless the tax payer has not sufficient personal property to pay the same situated in the county when the tax is due."

Mr. Nelson moved to amend section 64 by adding a clause authorizing administrators or executors of sheriffs to sign deeds, etc., in case of the death of sheriffs in office. The amendment was adopted.

The remaining sections were passed over and adopted. The committee arose, the Speaker resumed the chair, and the chairman reported the action of the committee. The bill, being again before the House, Mr. French moved to amend section one of the machinery act so as to make it a misdemeanor for corporations or individuals to refuse to give the names of all persons liable to axation in their employment.

An amendment was also offered to reduce the tax on sewing machine agents from $50 to $30. Both amendments passed.

[illegible] moved to reinburse the House sub-committee on education for expenses in visiting Chapel Hill and the State Normal school at Greensboro, amounting to $75, was referred to the finance committee.

The House then took a recess till 7:30 o'clock p. m.

Night Session.

Mr. Williams made a favorable report on bill 166, to amend the charter of the city of Newbern; calender.

Bill to repeal chapter 60, local laws of 1866-'67; passed second and third readings.

1216, to regulate manufacture and sale of liquors in Cherokee county; taxes liquor 30 cents a gallon to support public schools in Cherokee.

The bill was opposed by ——, who said [illegible] be believed this bill would kill [illegible] political aspirations of the gentle[illegible] from Cherokee. The gentleman who [illegible] Cherokee thought the gentleman had spoken was as wise as Solomon. At least that gentleman thought amendment was made to leave the [illegible] to a vote of the qualified voters [illegible] county.

Mr. McCall offered an amendment to [illegible] out 30 cents and insert 20. Mr. [illegible] Campbell accepted the amendment. Mr. McCall introduced another long amendment, which was also accepted. The bill as amended then passed its third reading.

To amend the charter of the city of Newbern, passed second reading.

To drain Matamuskeet Lake in [illegible] county by taxation of those [illegible] passed second reading by [illegible].

To incorporate the Beaumont [illegible] Association, passed its second and third readings.

To appropriate 1-6 of the school fund [illegible] Pasquotank to colored Normal school at Elizabeth City, passed over [illegible].

OTHER BILLS PASSED.

The following passed second and third readings:

To repeal chapter 301, laws of 1895.

Senate bill, to incorporrte Carolina Christian college in Pitt county.

Senate bill, to change time of holding superior court of Durham county.

To provide for curing the blind, [illegible] two rooms for males and one [illegible] females of curable indigent [illegible] doctors offering their services without charge.

PASSED THIRD READING.

To incorporate Western North Carolina Christian Conference; [illegible] the floating debt of the town of Morganton; [illegible] providing for a graded school in [illegible] Henderson.

SAMMY'S FISH BILL UP AGAIN.

To repeal chapter 512, laws of 1889, to permit fishermen to fish at the mouth of Cape Fear river. The bill was tabled once. Mr. Drew moved to table the bill again. The motion to table was lost. Mr. Bryan spoke against the bill because it would interfere with the passage of shad up the Cape Fear river. Mr. McClammy vigorously advocated it. After much discussion the motion was renewed to table and lost. The bill was then withdrawn by Mr. McClammy who introduced it.

PASSED SECOND AND THIRD READINGS

262, to establish graded schools for Warsaw, passed second and third readings.

Bill to incorporate the town of Berryville, Catawba county.

759, to amend laws of 1876 and 1877 in relation to trustees of Wentworth academy.

1206, to protect fish in Black River and Mingo creek in Sampson county; 1202, to repeal chapter 340, laws of 1889 in regard to fishing in Scuppernong river.

THE DOCTORS OF SURRY AND STOKES.

To license certain physicians in Stokes and Surry county. Amended by adding "provided that said physicians pass their examination before the State board."

Mr. Monroe believed the passage of this law would be an injury to the young men themselves; he opposed the bill. On motion of Mr. Lee the bill was tabled.

PASSED SECOND AND THIRD READINGS.

419, for the relief of Jno. W. Thompson, receiver.

Act to amend 162, laws of 1892, relating to stock law of Robeson county.

987, to restore money paid to State board of education certain grants to which the board of education could not make title.

EWART'S INDIAN BILL.

1326 to amend chapter 211, laws of 89, relating to Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians. Mr. Ewart advocated the passage of the bill. Mr. Campbell said he had been written to to stop the passage of this bill, and he hoped the House would vote it down. Mr. King hoped that this bill would not pass. White men and not Indians wanted this bill. The Indians are opposed to the bill. Mr. Lee says, Mr. Smathers who introduced the bill is an honest man, and is the attorney for the Indians. Mr. —— said this bill ratified many contracts made by the Indians about which we knew nothing, contracts for timber and for land. Mr. Ewart called for the previous question. Mr. Campbell demanded the ayes and noes. The bill passed second reading, ayes 44 noes 18. Mr. Campbell called the attention to the fact that this band of Indians had requested that the bill of Mr. Smathers do not pass. After much discussion the third reading was objected to and the bill went over.

Substitute ordering the Treasurer to pay to Robert O. Burton and S. G. Ryan the sum of $903.48 each, for their services as attorneys in the case of the State vs. the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad Company.

Mr. Johnson moved to refer this bill to the finance committee. Mr. McCall explained that this money was paid by the railroad for the attorneys' fees. These gentlemen were not mentioned by name in the compromise act, and this bill was merely to name the attorneys for whom the railroads had paid the money into the State treasury.

Mr. Lusk said this matter ought not to be re-referred. These gentlemen were entitled to this money. It was paid into the State treasury by the railroad for them, and the State has no right to the money except as trustee for the gentlemen. Mr. Leinbach took the same view. The motion to refer was lost by 39 to 42. The bill then passed its second reading.

PASSED SECOND AND THIRD READINGS.

The following bills passed second and third readings without discussion:

To allow commissioners of New Hanovea to sell the old court house and lot; Senate 471, to prevent fishing with dutch nets in the waters of Pamlico and Tar rivers. Mr. Cox sent up a substitute which he said was a compromise between all parties interested.

For the relief of Abram V. Cook of New Hanover; to empower trustees and mortgagees to more accurately describe premises to be sold; act supplemental to act to restore the rate of interest to six per cent., provides that the act to restore six per cent. interest shall not affect causes of action arising or suits heretofore pending. The bill passed. [illegible] 1242, to amend chapter 61, public laws of 1885; passed.

A substitute for all bills of the building and loan associations was called up and during its consideration a motion to adjourn was made. It was announced that a Republican caucus would meet in the House and a Populist caucus in the Senate chamber immediately after adjournment.

The House at 10:10 o'clock adjourned till Tuesday at 10 a. m.

The Weather.

High Compliment to a Clerk.

On yesterday morning Hon. H. G. Ewart introduced the following resolution in the House of Representatives.

Resolved, that the thanks of this House, are due and are hereby tendered to John McDuffie, of Cumberland county, an assistant clerk of this House who in the compilation and preparation of a record of bills and resolutions introduced in this House, has enabled the members to immediately ascertain the number of any bill, or resolution offered in this House. Without such a record it would be almost an impossibility to trace either bills or resolutions.

This compliment to the Populist assistant clerk, Mr. McDuffie was a deserved one. His calender originated by himself, is a great labor saver, and has proven of incalcuable value to the members of the House.
